A $20,000 Fire in the Heart of the Town-Lease of Convicts.

Special Titory of the Kritishur Constants, February 18.-At 10 o'clock this a. m. the alarm of fire was given, and the rear part of the upper story of used by them for a workshop, was discovered to be in flames. It being in the enter of one of our best business flagratin, the fire being confined to the and leaving only the walls.

J. B. Butler & Co. are the heaviest osers, their stock being valued at $15,0 %, on which there was an insurance of $9,560, distributed among the following companies: Scottish Union and Na-tional, $3,000; Crescent, of New Orleans, $1,000; Star, of New York, $3,000; Royal, were all more or less damaged by the removal of goods and were all insured with the exception of the last mentioned. The building was insured by N.C. Road for $1,060, St. Paul $1,060, and Royal, $5,060. The walls of the adjoining buildings, owned by S. A. Pace and J. Huey were badly damaged, and insured in the Home and Manhattan of New York. The repeated instances of two story brick buildings consuming in thecenter of our solid blocks without crious injury to their neighbors, speaks well for the character of the improve-
